EMU 1995

21-2 • NCAA Third Place

GAA: .68 GpG: 4.17 MoV: 3.49

The 1995 Royals burst out of the gates, opening with a pair of shutouts and running out to a 7-0 start with four shutouts and an aggregate score of 41-3. A double-overtime win over Leb Val slowed them down, but the win streak stretched to 13 before a 2-1 loss to Goucher halted the run. Two victories to close out the regular season put EMU at 15-1 with an aggregate score of 68-9. The Royals swept through the ODAC tournament, not allowing a goal while scoring 19. Picked to host the regional tournament, EMU beat Wittenberg before beating Salisbury in double overtime to advance to the final weekend. A loss to eventual champion TCNJ was followed by a win over Wellesley to give the Royals third place. Candi Sauder, Krista Ebersole, and Kelly Jo Kern were all named All-Americans.

v TRINITY 1997

15-1 • NCAA Second Round

GAA: .94 GpG: 3.19 MoV: 2.25

The 1997 Bantams opened with a shutout and over the first four games outscored their opponents 14-1, notching three clean sheets along the way. A stretch of four games saw Trinity win three of them in extra time, but the streak was still alive at 8-0. After an 8-0 shutout in their next game, the Bantams allowed only one goal in each of their next five games to finish the regular season at 14-0, allowing only 11 goals. Trinity advanced to the NCAAs as the only undefeated team in the nation. They defeated NESCAC rival Bowdoin 3-1 in the first round before falling to Cortland 3-2 in a game that lasted over two days, marking the first time the Bantams lost all season long.
