The 1979 Raiderettes opened the season with a 2-1 win over Dickinson, and then ran off seven straight clean sheets while putting up 15 goals in a 6-0-1 stretch, with only a tie against Gettysburg marring the run. A pair of ties against Elizabethtown (3-3) and Bloomsburg (1-1) kept the undefeated streak alive, and a 5-0 win over Lebanon Valley closed out the regular season. A 4-0 shutout of IUP in the PSAC tournament moved Ship into the final against Lock Haven; the Lady Eagles handed the Raiderettes their first loss of the season in a 3-0 setback. In the EIAIW tournament, Ship beat Trenton State in strokes and Etown 1-0 to advance to the final against F&M. Despite a 4-3 loss, Ship still advanced to the AIAW tournament. There, #2 Ship beat four consecutive opponents by one goal, with Lynchburg, CSU Chico and Glassboro all falling. In the final against top seed F&M, Ship got revenge for the EIAIW loss with a 1-0 win, claiming the first national title for the school.

The 2013 Red Hawks leapt out of the gates, out-scoring opponents 34-2 in their first seven games. Three more wins followed before a 3-2 loss at Rowan dropped Montclair to 10-1. Eight consecutive wins brought the Red Hawks to the end of the regular season that included three wins against NCAA-bound teams. A pair of shutouts at home gave Montclair the NJAC title and the top seed in the NCAA tournament. After opening with a double-OT win over Mount Holyoke, the Red Hawks fell to eventual champion Bowdoin 1-0. Jennifer Tafro and Stephanie Lewis were named All-Americans.
