20-0 • NCAA Champions

GAA: .60 GpG: 3.25 MoV: 2.65

The 1981 Lions opened up the season with seven consecutive shutouts, outscoring their opponents 22-0. TSC notched 11 more wins behind All-Americans Dina Ayers, Repy Hattersley and Diane Smith, with six of those wins 2-1 triumphs. As the top seed in the tournament, the Lions advanced to the semifinals where they defeated home-standing Westfield 2-1 before shutting out F&M 2-0 to win the title. The clean sheet was the ninth of the season for Trenton State. They became the first school to win the Division III national championship, and did so with an undefeated record.

GAA: .67 GpG: 3.05 MoV: 2.28

The 2019 Panthers sprinted out of the gates, posting five wins over the first two weeks by an aggregate score of 23-1. Eight more wins came in succession moving Midd to 13-0 before a loss at Tufts ended the win streak. A win over Williams ended the regular season and Midd went into the NESCAC tournament as the top seed and host. A pair of wins moved the Panthers to the final, where they beat Tufts in overtime to keep the trophy. As the top seed in the NCAA tournament, Midd won a pair of games at home before advancing to the semifinals. A 1-0 win over Salisbury was followed by a 1-0 win over Franklin & Marshall to give the Panthers a third consecutive national championship. Erin Nicholas earned National Player of the Year honors and was named an All-American along with Marissa Baker and Katie George.
