

DIVISION III FIELD HOCKEY ALL TIME CHAMPIONSHIP BRACKET WEST REGIONAL – FIRST ROUND

MIDD 2019

21-1 • NCAA Champions

GAA: .67 GpG: 3.05 MoV: 2.28

The 2019 Panthers sprinted out of the gates, posting five wins over the first two weeks by an aggregate score of 23-1. Eight more wins came in succession moving Midd to 13-0 before a loss at Tufts ended the win streak. A win over Williams ended the regular season and Midd went into the NESCAC tournament as the top seed and host. A pair of wins moved the Panthers to the final, where they beat Tufts in overtime to keep the trophy. As the top seed in the NCAA tournament, Midd won a pair of games at home before advancing to the semifinals. A 1-0 win over Salisbury was followed by a 1-0 win over Franklin & Marshall to give the Panthers a third consecutive national championship. Erin Nicholas earned National Player of the Year honors and was named an All-American along with Marissa Baker and Katie George.

v CORTLAND 1984

15-2 • NCAA First Round

GAA: .50 GpG: 2.97 MoV: 2.47

The 1984 Red Dragons opened with a 4-1 victory over William Smith before embarking on a seven-game shutout streak that moved the team to 8-0 overall. A double-overtime loss to Lock Haven stopped the run, but a 3-1 victory over Ithaca started another seven-game streak that saw the Red Dragons outscore the opposition 19-4. In the NCAAs as the top seed in the tournament, Cortland's run came to a sudden halt with a penalty stroke loss to Ithaca in the first round, marking the first loss against a Division III team that season. Lisa Noll and Patty Swenk earned All-American honors.

